

Patty Ewing

Student: _____

Rubric: Where in the EUP is the best place to build a cottage?

Earth Science, project, to study current problem and discover some science facts about the water cycle and aquifers and ground water.

Enter rubric title
	Poor 1 pts	Fair 2 pts	Good 3 pts
Read and analyze newspaper article	Poor read article or listened to it being read. Came up with any 0-3 vocabulary, phrases, or 0-3 questions to ask about the article.	Fair read article or listened to it being read. came up with 4-9 vocabulary words, phrases, or 4-9 questions to ask about the article. Recorded these in my note book or journal.	Good read article, came up with 10 or more vocabulary words, phrases, or 10 or more questions to ask about the article and they are related to earth science. Recored these in my note book or journal and have definitions and can explain to other students or teachers what they mean.
Map Project	Poor Students find some of the map locations and can demonstrate to the teacher they are aware of how to read a map.	Fair Studnets find most of the map locations and record them on a map that they put in their notebook or journal. Perhaps some notes about the locations.	Good Students find all the requested map locations and recored them on a map that is in their journal or notebook. They have copious notes about the locations recorded and know the importance of each location .
Class Presentation	Poor Students give group presetation on the properties on which to build a cottage. Some science facts and senarios are correct	Fair Students give group presetation on the properties on which to build a cottage Most science facts and senarios are correct.	Good Students give group presetation on the properties on which to build a cottage All science fact and senarios are correct.

Build free rubrics at www.iRubric.com

Rubric Code: Z44X57